

My govt made 4 cr pucca houses for poor but I haven't made one for myself: PM Modi

SATNA, NOV 9 /--/ Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Thursday said every vote of the electorate in Madhya Pradesh has the power of "Trishakti", to help the BJP form government again in MP, strengthen the PM at the Centre and to keep the "corrupt" Congress away from power in the state.

Addressing a rally in Satna ahead of the November 17 Assembly elections in Madhya Pradesh, Modi said his government has made four crore pucca houses for the poor, but he has "not made even one house for himself." "Your one vote is going to help the BJP form government in MP again. Your vote will strengthen Modi in Delhi and it will also keep the corrupt Congress a hundred miles away from power in MP. That means one vote, three wonders. It is like Trishakti," Modi said.

The Prime Minister said after his government came to power in the country, it removed from records 10 crore fake beneficiaries created by the Congress who were taking benefits of government schemes. Modi said that is why Congress leaders were abusing him these days, as his government's move hit them hard. The government has thus saved Rs 2.75 lakh crore of the people, he said.

Referring to the construction of the Ram temple at Ayodhya in Uttar Pradesh, the Prime Minister said: "Wherever I go nowadays, there is talk of Lord Ram's temple being built in Ayodhya. There is a wave of happiness all over the country." The Prime Minister also said: "If we have got a new Parliament building constructed, we have also built 30,000 panchayat buildings. I am happy that due to the double-engine government of the BJP, Madhya Pradesh is one of the states where lakhs of houses were built for the poor." In Satna also, the poor people have got 1.32 lakh houses, he added. Modi said he has taken a resolve to extend the free ration scheme for the poor, started during the Covid-19 crisis, for the next five years after December. He further said two leaders were involved in "tearing clothes" of each other, an apparent reference to MP Congress chief Kamal Nath and Rajya Sabha member Digvijaya Singh over Nath's recent "tear clothes" jibe.

Both the leaders are telling their supporters to "tear clothes" of each other, the PM said. "They are fighting to see whose son will take over the MP Congress after getting defeated on December 3 (vote counting day). They are upsetting Madhya Pradesh in a bid to set their sons," he said. (PTI)

Naxalism will be eliminated from Chhattisgarh in 5 years if BJP is voted to power: Shah

JASHPUR, NOV 9 /--/ Union Home Minister Amit Shah on Thursday said if the BJP comes to power in Chhattisgarh, Naxalism will be eliminated from the state in five years.

Addressing a rally in Jashpur constituency of Chhattisgarh, Shah slammed Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel-led dispensation saying while 'Chandrayaan' was to the moon under the central government headed by Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the point where it landed was named 'Shivshakti', the Congress government in the state indulged in betting in the name of 'Mahadev'.

Further targeting the state Congress government,

Union Home Minister Amit Shah addressing a public meeting in Kunkari, Chhattisgarh on Thursday

Shah said rampant religious conversion took place in the last five years. Shah appealed to the people to form a "double-engine" government (BJP at the Centre and in Chhattisgarh) and assured that Naxalism will be eliminated from the state in five years.

The rule of "corruption" prevailed in Chhattisgarh in the last five years, he said, claiming the Baghel government indulged in several "scams worth thousands of crores of rupees."

"Under the Modi-led government at the Centre, 'Chandrayaan' was sent to the moon and Modi ji named the point as Shivshakti, expressing reverence to Lord Shiva. But the Congress government in Chhattisgarh, they opened a betting app in the name of Mahadev. They should be ashamed as they should have spared at least the name of Mahadev," Shah said.

People are saying "sattu (betting) pe sattu (rule), kaun kar raha hai, Bhupesh kakka," the senior BJP leader said. He said if the BJP comes to power in the state, an enquiry commission will be set up and all those who have been indulged in corruption will be sent to jail.

The Home Minister also said that rampant religious conversion took place during the Congress government in Chhattisgarh.

The BJP will not allow the conversion of adivasis (tribals) without their consent, and will protect them, he added.

The first phase of polling in 20 out of the total 90 Assembly seats in the Congress-ruled state was held on Tuesday. (PTI)

BJP uses ED, CBI, I-T dept to stop Cong from winning polls: Kharge

BAIKUNTHPUR, NOV 9 /--/ Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge on Thursday slammed the BJP-led Centre claiming it uses the ED, CBI and the Income Tax department to stop his party from coming to power in elections.

Addressing a campaign rally in Baikunthpur constituency of Chhattisgarh, Kharge also alleged that the BJP, Prime Minister Narendra Modi and the RSS have been trying to change the Constitution. To stop them, Congress' victory is necessary in elections to five states, including Chhattisgarh, he said. Voting was held on Tuesday for Mizoram elections and for the first phase of Chhattisgarh polls. Polling for the second phase in Chhattisgarh, as well as elections in Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Telangana are scheduled later this month. Kharge claimed the Congress fights for the poor, while the BJP fights for (industrialist) Adani and the rich. "This election is going to change the future of the country and it is very important as the BJP government, Modi ji and RSS have been trying to change the Constitution. They are trying to remove (provisions) which are in the interest of the poor and deprived people," the Congress president alleged.

To stop them, it is necessary to bring the Congress to power in the five states, including Chhattisgarh, Kharge said. "Modi ji says he has done so many things and asks what the Congress has done for the country. He takes the name of Congress at least 50 times in every speech as he is scared of the Congress," he said. To prevent the Congress from coming to power in elections and to target its workers and leaders, the BJP-led Centre uses the ED, I-T department and CBI, Kharge alleged. "In Hyderabad, I had said our one candidate is contesting from one constituency, but the BJP has fielded three candidates (from one segment) and they are the ED, I-T and CBI," Kharge claimed. (PTI)

Priyanka urges MP voters not to break Ramayana tradition of victory of truth

CHITRAKOOT, NOV 9 /--/ Congress general secretary Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Thursday lashed out at the ruling BJP while campaigning for the Madhya Pradesh Assembly polls, reminding voters of Ramayana's tradition of "victory of truth and defeat of untruth".

Addressing an election rally in Chitrakoot Assembly constituency in Satna district, Priyanka said people should reduce their "reverence" towards leaders who lure them into seeking votes in the name of religion during elections. There is a mythological belief about Chitrakoot that it was the place of penance of Lord Rama. The Congress leader said that even during the time of Lord Ram, there was a tradition of "victory of truth and defeat of untruth" and it has been followed in the country since the Ramayana period that people revere the ruler who works for them with a sense of compassion and service. She urged voters not to break the tradition.

"On TV, you watch that Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan have done a lot of work for the progress of the country and the state, but is this progress reflected on the ground?" "When you see that you are plagued by problems and there is no hearing, reduce your respect for leaders who lure you and ask you for votes in the name of religion," said Priyanka. The Congress leader said that Mahatma Gandhi, who lived his entire life on the principles of Ramayana, had taught those principles to the Congress and when he was shot, he uttered "Hey Ram" before his death.

Lashing out at the ruling BJP over the disinvestment of big state-run companies, the Congress general secretary said: "I don't care if someone calls themselves Mama' and Fakir'. When you can give big government companies of the country to your industrialist friends at throwaway prices, then you are simply corrupt." She added: "Whatever you call yourself, there is no bigger corruption and betrayal than that you handed over the wealth of this country to a select few." (PTI)

have been trying to change the Constitution. They are trying to remove (provisions) which are in the interest of the poor and deprived people," the Congress president alleged.

MP transitioned from 'Bimaru' to 'Bemisaal' state under BJP rule: Sitharaman

BHOPAL, NOV 9 /--/ Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Thursday said Madhya Pradesh has transitioned to "Bemisaal" (extraordinary) state shedding the tag of "Bimaru" due to the good governance and people-friendly policies of the BJP government. 'Bimaru' acronym was used to refer to Bihar, Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan and Uttar Pradesh as they had lagged in terms of economic growth, healthcare and education. Barring a short period after the 2018 Assembly elections, BJP has been ruling the state for almost 20 years in a row. Ahead of the Assembly elections, senior BJP leader Sitharaman addressed a press conference to highlight the various measures taken by the BJP government. The Union minister said the overall development in the state has come about because of 5Gs -- Growth, Good Governance, Goodwill of people, Guarantee of Modi ji and Garib Kalyan (welfare of poor). On account of the 5Gs,

"Madhya Pradesh has ceased to be a Bimaru state and has become a 'Bemisaal state'", Sitharaman stated. The Union minister also exuded confidence that BJP will get support of all sections of the people in the assembly elections. The state, Sitharaman said, has witnessed all round progress in areas such as social justice, industry and agriculture. Reeling under statistics, the finance minister said in 2002, the per capita income of Madhya Pradesh was Rs 11,171. "The state has now witnessed a 12-fold increase in per capita income and it has gone up to Rs 1.40 lakh," the Union minister said, and added the GDP ratio of the state has fallen to 27.8 per cent in 2023 from 31.6 per cent because of the good governance of the BJP government in the state. The minister further said the BJP government in the state has given a lot of emphasis on agriculture as the state government's budget allocation to the sector has increased from Rs 600 crore in 2002 to Rs 54,000 crore in 2023.
